THE AUSTRALIA DEPARTS.

WITH A BIG CROWD OF FUMIGATED PASSENGERS.

Complete List of Her Passengers With Other Interesting Items Alongshore Today.

Fumigation is the order of the day.

The steamers James Makee and Wainaleale are now in quarantine, and will sail next week.

The steamers Claudine and Likelike are anchored outside and will sail next Tuesday on their respective routes.

The steamship Australia sailed for San Francisco this evening with a big list of fumigated passengers and the mail.

The steamer Keauhou arrived this morning from Kauai with the mail and a few passengers. No special news was brought over.

The Canadian Australian liner Miowera, Commander Stott, stopped in the roadstead last night for a few hours en route from Sydney to Vancouver. She landed one passenger with the Colonial mail, and left at midnight without taking on any passengers, freight or mail. The Miowera had spoken to the Warrimoo which left here last week, and came prepared for the cholera.

The British steamship Altmore will not call at this port as expected next week, and it is probable that no more steamships of the Oregon Railway and Navigation line to Hongkong will do so. These steamships have no trouble in securing full cargoes for Hongkong direct in Portland, and there is not sufficient shipments to this port to induce them to include Honolulu in their voyage.

Eagle-eyed Inspector Kelley made a haul of a fine watch from an employee of one of the wharves yesterday who was, it is claimed, attempting to smuggle the time piece off the Australia. It is a stop watch—and stopped it was—right on the gang plank. A business man of this city called at the custom house this morning with a claim for the ticker, but it is held for further investigation.
